

Roscoe Beano

"Winfield Lullaby"

Visit "Winfield Lullaby" on MotoLyrics.com

I can't help but think a little clearer with Kansas City disappearin' in my mirror.
I'm going back to a place I know I love

God knows I do my day to day
And I know I've got to get away
I gotta get back. It's another attack to pass some music on.

Chorus: Take me back to a place I knowÃ¢â€Œ it's a deeper side of my life.
Take me back where I wanna goÃ¢â€Œ where heart
are warm and light.
In the middle of September, I always remember
everything is all right.
Down by the Walnut River in the presence of a Winfield
Kansas' night.

I still see mom and dad, playin games with us kids in that old tent we had
And after the rain was gone we were still havin' funÃ¢â€Œpassin' music on.

Air fills with campground lullabiesÃ¢â€Œ now I'm closing my smilin' eyes
To Blackberry Blossom, a Horn Pipe or twoÃ¢â€Œ
It's that Kindergarten Wall, Ragtime Annie and You.

Rep. Chorus:

Then it's time to leave the place you love
With roots so deep, so far from the push and shove.
And it's a well-worn weary tear, that trickles down a rear view mirror
After the smiles and all of the miles all you can think about is makin it back next year.

Take me back to a place I knowÃ¢â€Œ it's a deeper side of my life.
Take me back where I wanna goÃ¢â€Œ where heart
are warm and light.
In the middle of September, I always remember

everything is all right.

Down by the Walnut River in the presence of a Winfield
Kansas' night.

Down by the Walnut River in the presence of a Winfield
Kansas' night.

Visit Roscoe Beano page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.