Can you still remember this before?
When, together I'm saying this once more
I hope you'll never turn, turn your back on me

Wish you'll never break my heart again
When will be the time that you'll let me through?
So please don't ever leave my side again
You and I were the greatest thing I know

I had you in my dream last night again
And I'm begging for you to stay
But you left me behind, and nothings left for me

Wish you'll never break my heart again
When will be the time that you'll let me through?
So please don't ever leave my side again
You and I were the greatest thing I know
