Could you tell me how you feel?
And tell me what is real
Cause I can't take every word you said.
Can you wake me up from this dream?
Cause I can't see anything
Would you help me go back to the top?

And the papers that you tore down
Are all left in my head.
And these crumpled photographs
Are all I have.

Have you forgot the things
That we used to do?
What if I said
"I'll always be there for you "

How about the things that you have said and done
Have you realized that they're gone?
And every word you said, just faded away.
Everyday I tried to call you
But you won't answer and that's not new
So I'll just hope and hope for a better day to come.

Every night I dream about you
We sit and watch the sunset
And these faded memories
Are all I have.

Have you forgot the things
That we used to do?
What if I said
"I'll always be there for you "
Would you care for me too?
