Black heart, sunny boy
Life's not only rich man's joy
Days are dark so is the night
But you are on the better side

Blood still running through your veins
Show me you can move again
It's not time to say goodbye
Because cool kids can't die

Walking through the town again
Black heart, forgotten man
Healthy enough to be really glad
Sick enough to be really sad

After walking round the bend
Your feet have maybe reached the end
Boy the walls are not to high
Because cool kids can fly

Walking through the town again
Black heart, forgotten man
Healthy enough to be really glad
Sick enough to be really sad

After walking round the bend
Your feet have maybe reached the end
Boy the walls are not to high
Because cool kids can fly

Black heart, sunny boy
Life's not only rich man's joy
Days are dark so is the night
But you are on the better side

Blood still running through your veins
Show me you can move again
It's not time to say goodbye
Because cool kids can't die

Boy the walls are not to high

Because cool kids can fly

Boy the walls are not to high
Because cool kids can fly
