"The Art Of Conversation"

I speak as if you were listening. a conversation can Confuse and a smile can mean so many things that cannot

Be said. this slumber is so peaceful and I want it to Last forever. I am dreaming in your arms and in your arms

I am forever but nothing can last forever. the first time
I felt this nothing I was in your arms. your arms Surround me and you owe me. I speak as if you were Listening and you smile. my mouth is full of lies and we All lie. a broken heart is something you cannot mend and

You cannot mend my broken heart.
