I'm waiting in the darkness,
Her blood will soon be mine,
She took this life for granted,
Her body they wont find.

I'll show her evil that she never knew existed.
She starts to pray as she is being mutilated.

I torture rape and kill,
Under a godless sky.

Killing for pleasure,
My need for blood will not stop.
I live for your death,
For your pain I am insane.

I will not stop,
Until your dead and buried,
Dismembered and nameless,
They will never find me.

Pray to your god that's nowhere,
By my hand you will die,
I torture rape and kill,
Under a godless sky.

Pray to your god that's nowhere,
My blood as you will die,
I torture rape and kill,
Under a godless sky.

I disfigure her body,
Lying in her grave,
I see only death,
I feel no pain.

Pray to the god that you think is above,
The one who will save you and show you his love.
Now you are mine and will not be saved,
Dismembered and rotten, fucked in your grave

Pray to the god that you think is above,
The one who will save you and show you his love.
No you are mine and will not be saved,
Dismembered and rotten, fucked in your grave

Killing for pleasure,
My need for blood will not stop.
I live for your death,
For your pain I am not insane.

I will not stop,
Until your dead and buried,
Dismembered and nameless,
The will never find me.

She lies under a godless sky
She lies under a godless sky
She lies under a godless sky
She lies under a godless sky
