It's amazing how much pain we go through. It's amazing how many tears we cry for the Things we want or the ones we love passing us by. But how we get through it I Don't know. but I think with the help of God and the preying to the savior.
... it'll stop all the pain, stop all the pain. There is abuse, it seems Like there is no hope left but if you keep walking, keep on searching we'll stop The pain no more hurt or sorrow just a land of peace and love no more pain
No more hurt ohhh no more pain no more. I know sometimes we wanna run But keep on holding on... pray to the savior ask him for help. it will Help stop the pain, no more. so stop the tears stop the crying and stop
The pain
