Can you draw the picture of darkness
And write a poem of misery
Can you make a child happy
Who died of poverty

You watch the naughty life
And sing the grievous songs
Rebel against the violence
The name of the game: Be quite!

Ooooo- naughty life
Ooooo- grievous songs

You tell me which is bad
To want or to beg
You tell me which is right
To be quite or to fight

Let's destroy the kingdom of the thieves
Altogether tonight
Let's hoist the flag of the honour in the wind
Light the darkness of the night

Ooooo- naughty life
Ooooo- grievous songs

You tell me which is bad
To want or to beg
You tell me which is right
To be quite or to fight

Let's destroy the kingdom of the thieves
Altogether tonight
Let's hoist the flag of the honour in the wind
Light the darkness of the night
