"Heaven and Sky"

There is a bell in a mountain town,
Each night it rings out three times.
They say it rings out for those who dwell
In between heaven and sky.

So lift your hearts to the mountain town,
Hear the bell as it rings.
It calls out to where all the angels fly
In between heaven and sky.

I hear the bell when it rings each night,
I turn my face to the sky,
I hear the bell as it calls out to
Those between heaven and sky.

From mountain top to mountain high,
Through valley far, valley wide
The angels sing and the angels cry
In between heaven and sky.
