Lay your head to rest

You have done your best

There is no need to fear

You are on your way

To a brighter day

All your skies are clear

Nanita, na na nanita

We'll find a way so trust in me

The soul of you so pure and true

Nanita I'll be there for you

The road is very long

There is no right or wrong

So just sing your song

Your day will surely come

To shine like the sun

You will be the one.

Lay your head to rest

You have done your best

There is no need to fear

You are on your way

To a brighter day

All your skies are clear

Nanita, na na nanita

Na na na

In the end it is true

That only to you

You must be true

Your day will surely come

To shine like the sun

You will be the one.
