When the lark she sings in the dark at dawn
She sings because she knows there will be tomorrow
Deep in the forest of a
Thousand dreams she has yet to know
She sings because she knows
There will be tomorrow

Zu ni a, zu ni a, zu ni a ha
Zu ni a, zu ni a, zu ni a ha

When the phoenix rises up in the sky
She flies because she knows it is time to rise
Deep in the forest of a thousand dreams
She will never know
She flies because she knows there will tomorrow
