Hail an' sleet against the roof
Ice age spreading bulletproof
Paradise lost about to freeze
Not much left except to teas

Why keep it dark
When you need light
The tell-tale light that makes you see
The word with perfect pitch is "free"
Just give it a try, it'll multiply

Although your plane has clipped its fragile wings
Take off, let the sky do its thing
And if you find the heavens out of sync
Gently glide, don't even think
I can see you've got wings to spare
Fly, fly
Can you see how they span midair
Fly, fly

Your runway's blocked with solid ice
Control tower needs advice
Every flight a cancellation
Pull the plug on stagnation

Hey, press the button it says go
Keep your cool and just go with the flow
I know your vision's blurred
But you'll soar just like a bird

Although your plane has clipped its fragile wings
Take off, let the sky do its thing
And if you find the heavens out of sync
Gently glide, don't even think
I can see you've got wings to spare
Fly, fly

Can you see how they span midair
Fly, fly

It's surreal when we meet
Random flights so bittersweet
Only we can fly so far
Because that's the way we are
