I'm wide awake
Now is not the time to dream
Come over close
Closer to me

Out there it's raining
And the sound makes me feel safe
I'm warm as toast
And you're my tea

You turn me on
And it's so strong
I've no defense
Or saving grace
Can't fight temptation
This hot sensation
Like kissing fireworks in electric rain

My ego's come unstuck
Even you were thunderstruck
Icebergs in a microwave
Don't move an inch
You're so much more than eyes can take
Feel the fear but do it anyway

You turn me on
And it's so strong
I've no defense
Or saving grace
Can't fight temptation
This hot sensation
Like kissing fireworks in electric rain
