I know we're apart but I still feel for you, my feelings grow stronger everyday I see you, and this situation I cannot confide, I know this is wrong dear, and I feel it inside...

But I want you, I need you dear, I want this so bad, It brings me to tears, I want you, I need you dear, I want this so bad, It brings me to tears...

On and on, to the darkness we proceed
On and on, to the darkness we proceed
On and on, and our time has nearly come,
On and on...

I know this is harder for us both to see, This distance refuses to set us free, And these complications I describe, My thoughts of you dear, I cannot hide...

But I want you, I need you dear, I want this so bad, It brings me to tears, But I want you, You know I need you dear, No matter how hard I try, I feel it in here...

On and on, To the darkness we proceed,
On and on, to the light we can't see,
On and on, and our time has nearly come,
On and on...

Why oh why, Have you chosen me, Life seems so much
harder, When we cannot be,
Why oh why, Have you chosen me, Life seems so much harder, When we cannot be...

On and on, To the darkness we proceed,
On and on, To the light we can't see,
On and on, And our time has nearly come,
On and on...
(Repeat)

Each day I grow stronger, Closer to you...
