The soul is roaring but the flesh is weak
In the summer seasoning
Drowning in the scorch of the sun,
A beauty caught my eye in the distance
And maybe with persistence
I could convince her to share her secrets
Oh her seductive sexual dance draws me in My upper lip quivers and these tiny
Tiny beads of sweat fall from my brow
Are you a dream?
Are you a figment of my imagination?
Too good to be true, From Heaven God sent you
I'm truly blessed to meet your acquaintance
I shot day, It's a pleasure

In the desert sand across the southern seas
My hips sway like palms in the breeze
Travelled far, stranger in this place
Forbidden fruit
Don't you want a taste (baby don't you want a taste)
Follow my hands over my skin
Thirsty eyes drinking me in
Burning laps, shake my silhouette
I lick my lips as I watch you sweat

I'm that shine in the rain
Says you need to Cool you
I'll show you every pinch of the Karma Sutra
Make you feel like two nights
Is a thousand and one nights baby
Take you higher, on a magic carpet ride baby
Touch you, love you in a thousand and one ways
Until the life spring off set force when you wake it was never

Inspired from the door
Glowing skin soaked falling to the door
Body twisted turning like a storm
Exotic secrets keep you wanting more
I will keep you wanting more

I'm that shine in the rain

Says you need to Cool you
I'll show you every pinch of the Karma Sutra
Make you feel like two nights
A thousand and one nights baby
Take you higher, on a magic carpet ride baby
Touch you, love you in a thousand and one ways
Until the life spring off set when you wake it was never

My exotic beauty, miss dissent rose
With your soft supple lips
You have no idea the love you inspire
What I wouldn't give to spend one hour
In your bosom, our bodies intertwine
In a gentle crass, thrusting the hips
And in a flash... you're gone

Make you feel like two nights
A thousand and one nights baby
Take you higher, on a magic carpet ride baby
Touch you, love you in a thousand and one ways
Until the life spring off set when you wake it was never
Make you feel like two nights
A thousand and one nights baby
Take you higher, on a magic carpet ride baby
Touch you, love you in a thousand and one ways
Until the life spring off set when you wake it was never (Never, never)
