Darkness of desert air
I'm surrounded by space
I look toward heaven
And I see your face
Mountains in silhouette
Shadows here on earth
My heart is burning in my chest
The stars are glowing more
And I can't take it
Cause I my eyes are burning

There's a star on fire
There's a blaze across the sky
There's a blaze across the sky
There's a star on fire
There's a blaze across the sky
Would you please please tell me why?
[X2]

It's part of a mystery
There's no, need to understand
A part of our history, yeah
Holding to my hand
Mountains in silhouette
Shadows here on earth
My heart is burning in my chest
The stars are glowing more
I can't take it
Cause I my eyes are burning

There's a star on fire
There's a blaze across the sky
There's a blaze across the sky
There's a star on fire
There's a blaze across the sky
Would you please please tell me why?

There's a star on fire
There's a blaze across the sky
There's a blaze across the sky
There's a star on fire

There's a blaze across the sky

In this moment it feels like everything will last,
But in the blink of an eye, it's gone

There's a star on fire

There's a blaze across the sky

There's a blaze across the sky

There's a star on fire

There's a blaze across the sky

Would you please please tell me why?

[X2]

It's gone.
