Como una rosa perfumada,
Maringã,
la pastora mãs hermosa
que muriã de tanto amar,

Como las flores,
fue muy breve su vivir
marchito por sus amores
y el dolor la hizo morir.

Maringã, Maringã...
despuã que tãº partiste
todo el pueblo quedã triste
porque amaban tu bondad.

Maringã, Maringã...
tãº quisiste hasta la muerte
y el martirio de tu suerte solo Dios comprenderã.

Maringã, Maringã...
mrecãas el amor
y cortaron tu rosal,
tu destino era de flor.

Wikipedia:

Maringá is a city and municipality in southern Brazil founded in 1947 as a planned urban area. The city takes its name from a song by Joubert de Carvalho in honour of his great love, Maria do Ingá, latter shortened to Maringá, that at the time of establishment of the settlement was very popular in the media, thus the city being known as the Song City.
