I'll fill my life with things
Things for me to do
Anything I can
Even if I really don't want to
Can't sit around and wait
Thinking doesn't do me good
While waiting for happiness
I get nothing done of what I should

CHORUS:

Everything that's been
Just throwaway parts of a beginning story
Everything I've seen
It was was nothing
Without you

So there's been a few days
Under my glee
And endless screaming and shouting
For something that may never be
Got to be hard on you
The waiting and longing
And all of our wanting
And I don't know what I should do

CHORUS:

Everything that's been
Just throwaway parts of a beginning story
Everything I've seen
It was nothing
Without you

I'll fill my life with things
Things for me to do
I hope you know
I'm doing it just for you
