Weakness
Future is hopeless
Mistakes will teach us nothing cos' there's nothing to fight for

You've got to pay the price
I'm lost in a sea of vice
What's the game we're playing
Golden promises

Smoke in your eyes
And dreams of dark and blue
Disappointed on and on Misunderstanding

The party's over
I ran through the woods
Beyond the clearing
Alone with the night

And I sat on the floor
Where are we going
Sinking, you and me
Words have nonsense

At the still point of destruction
Deliverance is hopeless
Disappearing is the sentence
Independence
