And this is another story...

Trapped among a million words and lies bound by laws written by people dead many years ago
Trapped among a million words and lies she lives her deaf existence in dreams

I can't understand this stupid load of crap
This is the only thing I can promise to you

Save me from heaven (save me from heaven)

She waits in silence keeping the uncountable shelves of soul boxes and tear bottles
What can we do now?
Just wait with her and get redemption through suffering

This is one way of making you shiver and this is another

Riot (save me from heaven)

Save me from heaven (save me from heaven)
Save me from heaven (save me from heaven)

And this... this is probably not what you hoped
