"I Am With You"

i am with you from the day you saw the light and took your mother's breath away i am with you when you fade when your soldier's laying down his blunted blade once you'll stay with me i will set you free forever free from all your worries and your vanity there's no need to fear i will hold you dear in my arms you'll close your eyes for all eternity i am with you when you laugh with sudden joy that makes you praise the gods above i am with you when you cry when all you ask is why and there is no reply
