"I Cry"

me and you standing eye to eye i read your face, i've known you for so long torn in two and i don't know why what was right somehow now is wrong

i say hey my friend
don't let it end we've got to try, try while we still can

i don't know when but there's a time our sun will rise again

what we missd and what we had i cry icry over you

i say no you can't walk away, run away like this
