you know me, you trust me, you love me, it's all in your eyes you stir me, you tempt me, you want me to drown in your sighs but you're a liar, a liar you're just a liar, a liar

you fool me, you scorn me, you flout me, you're rolling the dice you trick me, you knock me, you jilt me like just a device cause you're a liar, a liar

love is lost, lost in all those moments cruelly denied with everytime you lied love is lost, it's just a dying romance it was never meant ever to survive love is lost, a dream is left to perish a tale that burns in the light of truth love is lost, the love we used to cherish love is lost, a kingdom gone for good
