Just know that she will go away
I brood about it every night
Wondering what could make her stay
Without to start off a fight

And as she's lolling 'round the floor
Barefoot, with dirty soles
I know I love her more than more
While she is peering out the door

She is trying on a summer dress
Her goosebumps make her smile
I smile about it a shade less
The snowflakes knew it all the while

And as she's lolling 'round the floor
Barefoot, with dirty soles
I know I love her more than more
While she is peering out the door

They say that life is made of this
It's only moments you can hold
And so we share our winter kiss
She waits for spring to unfold

And so she's lolling 'round the floor
Barefoot, with dirty soles
I know I love her more than more
While she is just peering out the door
