Even though the time keeps running
I don't feel the need to rush
Or ramble on

In this constriction you are a healing
I can feel the atoms
Slowly disappear

I am caught up
In the mesh of yours

Bathing in the surf of your light
Unconcerned about all their talk
About all their lies

I am caught up
In the mesh of yours

The northern sky is black as ever
I turn around to get some faith
But are you there?

'Cos I am caught up
In the mesh of yours
