[Lyrics: Keijo]

Yaaaah!

The bath we live in,

It's fucking contaminated...

Call the cleaner, call the firemen!

I want to get rid of the filth!

The whole race: floating in rust

The symbols in the water must be obsolete!

The dirty water around all of us

Polluted by icons

Crosses, churches, stars

Legends and betrayers!

Convenience from the chewed shit,

Living without own ideology

Follow the jester, believe in him!

Find the leader and obey!

A natural pressure on top of the plug,

The drain could keep us sane

Who is holding us from the infinity?

Is it you, or the whole society?

Who's the blame?

Who's the blame?

Who's the blame?

Who's the blame?

[lead: Juha]

The plug to be pulled

An ultimate solution

Beliefs to be collapsed

Salvation, the sweet salvation...

Salvation,

The sweet salvation!

Salvation,

The sweet salvation!
