

Rotting Christ "Between Times"

Visit "Between Times" on MotoLyrics.com

The drums of time have stopped
The ecstatic quietude
Sucks up every fear
And every desire

Illusions of the moment
Featureless figures
Intensified feelings
I'm running behind my shadow

Dark is the dark
Always and never
This is the time
Of total purification

Dark is the dark
Always and never
This is the time
Of total purification

In this vastness
I feel your presence
I can't understand
Your misleading words

Inconceivable beauty
Sweet melody
Forgotten senses
Are waking up

Dark is the dark
Always and never
This is the time
Of total purification

Dark is the dark
Always and never
This is the time
Of total purification

Lost in thoughts
Trying to touch

The perfect moment
But the clocks strikes again

The drums of time have stopped
The ecstatic quietude
Sucks up every fear
And every desire

Illusions of the moment
Featureless figures
Intensified feelings
I'm running behind my shadow

Dark is the dark
Always and never
This is the time
Of total purification

Dark is the dark
Always and never
This is the time
Of total purification
