"To Fix A Broken Heart"

Please take me back
To where my heart can still remain intact
It's breaking into pieces
And I don't know what to do
So I can get away
From spending everyday spinning in circles
And it hurts so much
To find that everything you've ever loved
Comes crashing down
And you just keep watching
It's impossible to look away
You'll wish you never met at all in the first place
Run away from it all
And I'll tell you that it will catch up in the end
Find some way to know
I'll be sure that you won't look behind again
You'll see it's better to pretend
Please help me up
I've fallen down and broken all my bones
There's nothing left to see here
And I don't know what to do
So I survive the day
I've shattered everything
It's not so easy to remember
How I've lost it all
And there is one thing now that never seems to leave me
But I can't see what it is Such a thing as this Makes me start to miss the things I have forgotten
Run away from it all
And I'll tell you that it will catch up in the end
Find some way to know
I'll be sure that you won't look behind again
You'll see it's better to pretend
I don't know what to do
So I can get away from everything
