I feel like a reason would lately arrive with a name to recall

for once in the night
I feel like some fortune was with me to light one new flame - after all rains to the ground - rains to the world of tomorrow saints to be found yesterday - come what may still

one more day
- say you will -
another try - you and I ain't gonna cry no more - cry no more - ain't gonna cry no more

trust is a blade now that cuts like a knife and a dream to come true for once in my tears

there's destiny callin' and pain disappears and the skies burn so blue

- say you will -

little boy standin' by the window tell the world what you're gonna be little boy on the edge of silence open eyes for new aims to see come a day you may touch a rainbow come a day you may fade away come a word you may say in anger come a price you may have to pay.....
