here's to you, my fatherland silent scream - my only friend traces - disillusion - down masquerader - sailor - clown I was born without a home blue wherever I may roam seems like finally I would find everlasting peace of mind
- Insania

all the laughter - all the pain all the troubles - all the rain all the fun we had - INSANIA all the rumors - all the heat all the prayers to the backbeat all the things we said - INSANIA - gone too far... in my heart - in my soul I take a dice and let it roll there's a place for the last and the only ones there's place for disgrace where the braindeer runs to the pole.
All my life I tried to hide where the rising shadows ride teardrops from a spaceship flown silent waters made of stone - Insania...
