Can you tell me where it leads
When it's neverending?
Can you tell me where to go
When no one's home?
Chorus:
And I know, you know
It hurts
It hurts to be alone
You're all, on your own
On a one-way train going down
Can you tell me what to say
When there's no one listening?
Can you show me what to do
When all is done?
Chorus:
I know, you know
It hurts
It hurts to be alone
The plan has gone wrong
Like a one-way train going down
Going down, down, down
Going down
Going down, down, down
Oooohhhh
Yes I know, you know
It hurts
It hurts to be alone
You're all, on your own
On a one-way train going down, going down
Going down, down, down
Going down
Going down, down, down
It hurts to be alone,
It hurts to be alone.
Going down
