See through my eyes and remember
Everything that you see is true

Things I wanna remember
Things I won't regret
Must of falling from grace
Cuz I'm never gonna forget

I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies
I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies

Black is all that I remember
That's one night will not believe

Before I reach across to Make you understand
I really wish that you would
Give me one last chance

I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies
I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies

I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies
Hears your lies
Hears your lies
Hears your lies

I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies
I'm falling, I'm falling, right before your eyes
I'm calling, I'm calling, but no one hears your lies
