Watch the wind blow the leaves on by
Stay alive, keep my head up high
Toast to the most outstanding
Brace yourself for the landing

Try to fly, misunderstanding
This love is so demanding
Watch the clouds go by
Time to drink my wine
And show you my world

And I want you know more then ever
And I won't let you go away
And I'll hold you, love you till December

We've been apart for way to long
How longs it been since I've been gone
Cut to the chase how do you feel
To this day it's seems surreal

Try to fly, I won't let you go
All these feelings inside of me grow
Watch the clouds go by
Time to drink my wine
And show you my world

And I want you know more then ever
And I won't let you go away
And I'll hold you, love you till December
Till December
Till December
Till December

I'll hold you, I'll hold you till December
And I want you know more then ever
And I won't let you go away
And I'll hold you, love you till December

And I want you know more then ever
And I won't let you go away
And I'll hold you, love you till December

Till December
Till December
Till December
