I'm sitting here and thinking about this messy situation
And how your stupid words have brought us only complications
I should have known when you gave me the eye
You just had your way didn't need to try
And you just had so many words but nothing real to say
And that was something that I found but it was just too late
It seems I only think of you that's the crazy thing with all you put me through and

I don't believe
It was me that made the first move
I don't believe
That you did it to me once again
I don't believe
You could leave something so good
What more can I do I leave it up to you

It seems the less you speak
The more I want you here with me
But something funny tells me that ain't how it's gonna be
So I pretend as though I never cared
And forget those times that we both have shared
And you go out your way to break another sorry heart
Like you did to me you planned it from the very start
I better get a grip of myself
This is killing me with no one else
This is killing me with no one else

I don't believe
It was me that made the first move
I don't believe
That you did it to me once again
I don't believe
You could leave something so good
What more can I do, I leave it up to you

I love when you avoid my calls

I love you were the one to start and end this song
Coz otherwise you get me with your dangerous smile
But now you've gone and left me with nothing

I don't believe
It was me that made the first move
I don't believe
That you did it to me once, you did it to me once again
I don't believe
You could leave something so good
What more can I do, I leave it down to you
