Are you amazed I love to look upon your face
So resplendent with amazing grace
Though at times you'll try to hide it in disgrace
I will always love you
Cause in your eyes I see a soul that longs to dance
I'm captivated by a single glance
And when you look my way I don't stand a chance
I will always love you

Like a mother to her child
Like a husband to his bride
I wanna...hold you in my arms
Like a father to his son
I wanna teach you when I'm done
I wanna...keep you safe from harm
Like an eagle with its wings
Teach you to soar, teach you to sing
So we can...sail out to the dawn

You've got such beauty inside
I cannot help but wonder why

Are you amazed I love to look upon your face
So resplendent with amazing grace
Though at times you'll try to hide it in disgrace
I will always love you
Cause in your eyes I see a soul that longs to dance
I'm captivated by a single glance
And when you look my way I don't stand a chance
I will always love you

Like a mother to her child
Like a husband to his bride
I wanna...hold you in my arms
Like a father to his son
I wanna teach you when I'm done
I wanna...keep you safe from harm
Like an eagle with its wings
Teach you to soar teach you to sing
So we can...sail out to the dawn

You've got such beauty inside
I cannot help but wonder why

Are you amazed I love to look upon your face
So resplendent with amazing grace
Though at times you'll try to hide it in disgrace
I will always love you

(instrumental)
I will always love you
(Instrumental)

I wanna sleep with you at night
You know I'm strong enough to fight
All the monsters beneath your bed
Be a shelter in the storm
A place to go when you're forlorn
Where you can rest your weary head

I wanna give to you my heart
And still you fear I will depart
Have you not heard a word I've said?

Because I do not change my mind
I know sometimes its hard to try

Cause in your eyes I see a soul that longs to dance
I'm captivated by a single glance
You know you're not taking that much of a chance
I have always loved you
Are you amazed I love to look upon your face
So resplendent with amazing grace
Though at times you'll try to hide it in disgrace
I will always love you
I will always love you
I will always love you
I will always love you
I will always love you
