Nobody's bigger than a giant
Nobody's quite as large as me
Nobody's bigger than a giant
I'm humongous, wouldn't you agree?

I'm large, I'm huge
Enormous, tall and grand
I can pick up your whole house
And hold it in my hand

I'm wider than a valley
And taller than a tower
I can lift an apple tree
And sniff it like a flower

I'm vast, immense
Happy and gigantic
I'm bigger than the oceans
Pacific and Atlantic

My hands can reach the planets
My nose can sniff the clouds
And when I stomp my giant feet
The sound is really loud

'Cause nobody's bigger than a giant
Nobody's quite as large as me
Nobody's bigger than a giant
I'm humongous, wouldn't you agree?
I'm humongous, wouldn't you agree?
