Rock it and roll!

You know it's easy to say,

"Get out and go your own way,"

But baby, why don't you just stay all night?

You're such a sweet young roller skater

And I could easily see you later

If you'd just tell me that it's all right

Because you can make love for the first time

You can be yourself, it ain't no crime

You can walk around on such a fine line

Anything you want to, baby

That's all right with me

If that's the way you feel

It ain't no big deal

I am a rock 'n' roller

And if I get much older

They're gonna bury me with my guitar

I wanna live and believe

I wanna give and receive

And baby, you're the one that'll make me a star

Well now, you can walk around with trashy clothes on

And you can love a man and make him feel strong

You can numb yourself until the pain's gone

You can tag along and, baby,

Nothin's wrong by me

If that's the way you feel

Ain't no big deal

I said oh when you tease me

I said oh baby, now you please me, please me!

Oh yeah

Well now, you can make love for the first time

You can be yourself, it ain't no crime

You can walk around on such a fine line

Anything you want to, baby

That's all right with me

If that's the way you feel

Ain't no big deal

I am a rock 'n' roller

And if I get much older

They're gonna bury me with my guitar

I wanna live and believe
I wanna give and receive
And baby, you're the one that'll make me a star!
Well now, you can make love for the first time
You can be yourself, it ain't no crime
You can walk around on such a fine line
Anything you want to, baby
If that's the way you feel
It ain't no big deal
Well, ain't no big deal
