I'm just a number, I don't know my name
Unknown faces a part of the game
Out in the desert the madness begins
Who's talkin' mercy? We're playin' to win

Better run around, there's no easy way out
If you loose take a stand
So do whatever you can again and again

Running wild like creature of the night
We're born to run and we never trust the light
Running wild, we're so afraid to try
We're all alone and everyone is blind
Running wild

You'll start the fire and livin' on a lie
Rats get fat while good men die
They got you running to follow the track
You'll face the trouble with fear on your back

Better run around, there is no easy way out
If you loose take a stand
So do whatever you can again and again

Running wild like creature of the night
We're born to run and never trust the light
Running wild, we're so afraid to try
We're all alone and everyone is blind
Running wild, yeah

Running, running wild, running
Running, running wild, running
Running, running wild, running
Running, running wild

Running wild like creature of the night
We're born to run and never trust the light
Running wild, we're so afraid to try
We're all alone and everyone is blind

Running wild like creature of the night
We're born to run and never trust the light

Running wild, we're so afraid to try
We're all alone and everyone is blind
Running wild

Running
