If you need me I will be nearby, mountain high, valley
low

low

(Uhh, uhh, uhh)

It depends on the type of men you keep in your regime
And when it's beef, just how extreme they will go
You should bust yo' gat with care Nigga, go to jail, I get you stabbed for a pack of squares

It's more to me look, pass the beef
I'm laughin' that's why this album is so morbidly put
I tote twice just in case
I gotta shoot you and throw away my future for yo' life

I could knock you out, I'd rather stand over you Holdin' a smokin' gun, nigga watch yo' mouth
You can go in that booth and call me all kinds of names
But motherfucker, you gotta come out

So whoever hatin' my team
Remember who the gun totin', who provoked the fat lady to sing
It's one rule everybody should know
Everybody should calm down and just live 'cause
(Everybody goes)

While all you front, the big picture stays the same
You can change the frame all you want
You can pretend all you wanna pretend
It's all gon' violently come to an end
(Everybody goes)

Die soldiers, try to live for the moment
We all borrow tomorrow, this is what God hones us
The biggest Indian giver, he gon' take it back
Erase you, I'm statin' facts to (Everybody)

Narcissistic rhyme style comes equipped with the Guns and clips are hungry, click in my compound

The M.I.C., represents the strength of henchmen
Here to get the attention
(Everybody)

Now that you listenin', nigga why you dissin'?
I can get to your brain quicker than what you sniffin'
I can open your mind quicker than that marijuana
That you smokin' and close both of your eyes

Toe taggin', break you apart, break your momma's heart
All because your brothers is holdin' a closed casket
The pinnacle of the word 'absurd'
The centerfold of murder when the unpreventable occurs

We do it with minimal words Dependin' on the person sent to hurt you might give you a criminal slur
This mac 10 is a blur, bullets is fast
I'm a cowboy, I wear my Timbs with spurs
(Everybody goes)

While all you front, the big picture stays the same
You can change the frame all you want
You can pretend all you wanna pretend
It's all gon' violently come to an end
(Everybody goes)

Die soldiers, try to live for the moment
We all borrow tomorrow, this is what God hones us
The biggest Indian giver, he gon' take it back
Erase you, I'm statin' facts to (Everybody)

Valley low
Mountain high, valley low
