(Harry Pease - Larry Vincent)

When the sun says good day to the mountain
And the night says hello to the dawn
I'm alone with my dreams on the hilltop
I can still hear her voice though she's gone.

I hear from my door the love songs through the wind
They bring back sweet memories of you
Now when the sun says good day to the mountain
I'm alone thinkin' only of you.

--- Instrumental ---

I hear from my door the love songs through the wind
They bring back sweet memories of you
Now when the sun says good day to the mountain
I'm alone thinkin' only of you...
