(Billy Grammer)

I'm tryin' my best to convince myself
That I'm doin' the right thing by you
You never have asked to be free of our love
And I've loved you so much and I still do.

If you had been cheap or wronged me
Someway I guess it would be easier for me
But that's not my story
It's just that you love another not me.

I'm letting you go for I can't bear to see
All your loveliness just fade away and die
Our folks will be hurt
For little they know no one knows just you and I.

The one that you love is the one that I thought
I could make you forget and never cry
Your heart he still holds I've got heartaches untold
I'm letting you go goodbye...
