I'm not goin' hungry anymore
Your sweet love's what I've been hungry for But since we locked our hearts together now my table's set forever
I'm not goin' hungry anymore.

Happiness is where you are and that's all I need to know
I'm gonna plant the seed of love just sit back and watch it grow
I'm givin' lovin' ev'rything I've got I'm strikin' while the iron is hot
I'm not goin' hungry anymore.
