(Tom E. Lee - Roy Drusky)

There's somethin' wrong now all the feelin's gone now
There's nothin' left now but a trace of pride
And it's too late now we're face to face with fate now Dreams lie in state now our everlasting love has died.

--- Instrumental ---

All hope is scattered now in a world that's shattered now
The things that matter now seem so hard to hide
But it's too late now let's don't turn to hate now
There's nothin' more at stake now our everlasting love has died...
