(Roy Drusky)

Please don't let me love you anymore
I think it's time that we both close the door
You still turn me on even more than before
But please don't let me love you anymore.

To be with you I'd leave ev'rything behind
I live a life and say I'm not that kind
Now something's gotta give that is if I'm to live
Cause lovin' you is messin' up my mind.

Please don't let me love you anymore
I think it's time that we both close the door
You still turn me on even more than before
But please don't let me love you anymore.

No, please don't let me love you anymore...
