(Dallas Frazier - Warren Robb)

I been leanin' on the wine to keep my crippled mind from fallin'
I've been tryin' to relieve the broken heart that she left behind
But I'm still not strong enough to resist the haunting mem'ry that keeps callin'
Has anybody seen that rain makin' baby of mine.

I should have known by now that all she ever brings is rainy weather
And I know that she'll abuse my love for her like all the other times
But the rain can't stop a fool from swimmin' back and forth across the river
Has anybody seen that rain makin' baby of mine.
