(Gene Hood)

Too much of you still on my mind
Thinking about you almost all the time
Missing you since you left me behind
I've got too much of you still on my mind.

Without thinking I let you walk away
That was a big mistake now I find
You're gone and now I know it's wrong this way
I've got too much of you still on my mind.

Too much of you still on my mind
Thinking about you almost all the time
Missing you since you left me behind
I've got too much of you still on my mind.

I've got too much of you still on my mind...
