I've had it up to here (now you know) your stealing and cheating and all your lies
No more chances for you (no no no)
No more chances for you (no no no)

So I follow you around - Not a word from you you can even hear my heart break

No more lovesongs for you
No more songs at all for you
One day you'll be alone
And where will I be then - I'll be gone

I am not invisible, I'm not blind
Everybody can see me cry
Everyone but you (oh oh oh)
everyone but you (no no no)

And so I follow you around - You are laughing now
But I'll be laughing too (before you know) - and you know

No more lovesongs for you
No more songs at all for you
One day you'll be alone
And that's when I'll be gone - I'll be gone

No more love songs for you
This is the last time I'll say that I ever loved you

But this is the last time I swear
One day you'll be alone

And there will be no songs for you (no no no)
And there will be no songs for you (no no no no no no)
