Plastic money flexidream and comfort for the preacher keep the debtor out of prison borrowing the future how much future can he borrow how much past can he forget when now's become part of tomorrow just a flashy fast advertisement that talks about beginning at the end.

You imagine
you can change the world and you're right
it's happening right here and now tonight tonight.
Relief for hungry children is nothing but a symptom of accelerated ignorance unaware of how a world forcloses on invading circumstance and brings a new beginning all at once

You imagine
tonight tonight.
where ice and desert travels and the scale of justice levels and the house that silly jack built while forgetting ages cycling is crushed inside a moment he forgot there'll be a new beginning thanks a lot

You imagine
tonight tonight.
