Even though you drive me crazy
Even though we never last
Though the meaning's getting hazy
And our purpose here seems past
Can we really shed
All those memories we've had
Do we scatter all the pieces
Leave no traces
Torn forever to a shred
Once upon a time I loved you
How the hell did we get here
We don't have a change of finding
Greener pastures anywhere
Even though I may not like you
Sometimes hate you till I'm gone
Walking out with eardrums rolling
As you go on and on
You must know I'll always love you
None above you
I'm still with you in the sun
Won't you please chase me with a smile for a change
Play music to my head
Please don't corner me with tension (anymore)
Take me as I am to your bed
Once upon a time I loved you
How the hell did we get here
We don't have a change of finding
Greener pastures anywhere
Even though you drive me crazy
I'm so crazy
I still care
