[Verse 1]

Who ever said that you couldn't succeed When your heart bleeds you need on your knees and you begging please
And if it ever came your way it be a better day
And if it don't, don't give up hope and continue to pray
I know I've had my fair share of despair honey
I wouldn't give up on the mere thought of mo' money
So this is what I did I forbid
The attitude that'll get ya suckered out of a picture
I never saw myself as some kinda hero
So listen up because your time could be near yo Quitters never win winners never quit
If you don't believe in yourself nobody else will do it

[Verse 2]

The very young can be blinded Thinking what they find is an easy way out It's road that escapes the clout
Well think again because there's prices on another level
a faster route and now your foot is layin' on the pedal When did your heart decide that you could just settle for less
Don't you know in your category you were truly blessed
I think you suffered a severe loss of self-esteem
And now it seems your whole life is a movie scene You're still a rompa you can change if you really wanna Double back recollect when you turned the wrong corner
Don't be content until you meet your demands
You can do it blood you can be a much better man

[Verse 3]

I had some lucky circumstances but I had to work Amidst the possibility of maybe gettin' jerked
But I'm here ain't I and I'm in the mix too That demonstrates how much a strong heart and mind can do
So please don't become a victim of pessimism

Keep your goals to yourself nobody messing with 'em
Keep your mind straight from those who wanna dictate
The spam of your intelligence they seem to underrate It's a form of oppression that they demonstrate And nine times out of ten they're guarded by a false plate
Never give up individual dreams of your future state and determine your own fate

[Verse 4]

Suckas that speak on a tracky technique Choose to preach on a sub-level spewing evil of the devil
You gotta check it disconnect it to the minimal Speaking tongues under drums like a subliminal Figure that you gotta kiss before you kick and every trick will then stick without licks you it's over dick
You didn't touch me then you don' t touch me now Believing in the power of myself, I know how
